Data Protection Act 1998

We hold on computer a list of the names and addresses of all our members and others who receive our newsletters and other papers, as part of our Club records and our mailing list. Your particulars will be added if you become a member or, without becoming a member, you receive our newsletters and other papers. This list also includes details of whether a person is a member, is on the Committee or holds any office within the Club. They are not available to anyone other than you, or any member with a need for access for the Club's purposes, and will be removed when you cease to be a member or cease to receive our newsletters and other papers. In no circumstances whatsoever will they be passed to any other person.

Please sign and date if you agree to this data being held on computer, otherwise it will be assumed that you object.
